

■ South Zone – South America, Africa, South Asia & Oceania ■

From Brazil's lively shores to the tranquil beaches of Seychelles and Pakistan's coastal beauty, the South Zone embodies a fusion of nature, culture, and adventure.

Copacabana Beach – Brazil ■■

One of the world's most famous beaches, located in Rio de Janeiro. Known for its 4 km crescent of golden sand, vibrant nightlife, and iconic New Year's Eve celebrations.

---

Ipanema Beach – Brazil ■■

A trendy beach in Rio de Janeiro, symbol of Brazilian culture. Popular for surfing, volleyball, and the stunning sunset views over the Dois Irmãos mountains.

---

Camps Bay Beach – South Africa ■■

Set against the backdrop of the Twelve Apostles mountain range, Camps Bay offers white sands, turquoise waters, and a lively promenade lined with restaurants and bars.

---

Clifton Beach – South Africa ■■

A series of four small coves, Clifton Beach is famous for its crystal waters, scenic cliffs, and luxurious atmosphere. Ideal for sunbathing and sunsets.

---

Varkala Beach – India ■■

Located in Kerala, Varkala Beach is known for its dramatic red cliffs, spiritual vibe, and natural mineral springs. A serene escape for both pilgrims and travelers.

---

Mirissa Beach – Sri Lanka ■■

A beautiful crescent-shaped beach ideal for whale watching, surfing, and relaxing. Surrounded by coconut palms and a charming island vibe.

---

Cox's Bazar – Bangladesh ■■

The world's longest natural sea beach, stretching over 120 km. Known for its golden sands, calm waves, and nearby Himchari National Park.

---

Clifton Beach – Karachi, Pakistan ■■

Karachi's most popular beach, located along the Arabian Sea. Famous for camel rides, street food, and stunning sunsets over the city skyline.

---

French Beach – Karachi, Pakistan ■■

A private and serene beach between Hawke's Bay and Paradise Point. Popular among locals for picnics, snorkeling, and scuba diving in clear waters.

---

Bondi Beach – Australia ■■

One of Australia's most iconic beaches near Sydney. Known for its golden sands, surfing waves, and the Bondi to Coogee coastal walk.

---

Anse Source d'Argent – Seychelles ■■

Renowned for its pink sands, granite boulders, and shallow turquoise waters. One of the most photographed beaches in the world, located on La Digue Island.

---

Nungwi Beach – Zanzibar, Tanzania ■■

Located on the northern tip of Zanzibar, this beach offers soft white sands, coral reefs, and vibrant nightlife with a relaxed tropical atmosphere.

---

■ Summary

The South Zone beaches reflect the beauty and diversity of the southern hemisphere — from the cultural rhythm of Rio's sands to the serene shores of the Indian Ocean. Each destination is a paradise waiting to be explored.