

■ West Zone – Europe, West Africa & Americas' West ■

From the golden cliffs of Portugal to the rhythmic shores of Ghana and the turquoise waves of the Caribbean, the West Zone offers a diverse blend of natural beauty, culture, and adventure.

Navagio (Shipwreck) Beach – Greece ■■

Located on Zakynthos Island, famous for its turquoise waters and the rusting shipwreck MV Panagiotis surrounded by dramatic white cliffs. Accessible only by boat, it's one of the most photographed beaches in the world.

Praia da Marinha – Portugal ■■

A stunning Algarve coastline gem with golden limestone cliffs, natural arches, and crystal-clear water. Perfect for snorkeling, cliff walks, and photography.

Nice Beach – France ■■

Located along the French Riviera, Nice Beach combines urban charm with azure waters. Pebbled shores, the Promenade des Anglais, and nearby cafes make it a cultural hotspot.

Playa de las Catedrales – Spain ■■

Known for its cathedral-like rock arches and caves sculpted by the Atlantic Ocean. Best visited at low tide for breathtaking views and photography.

Malibu Beach – California, USA ■■

An iconic Californian beach lined with luxury homes, surf culture, and scenic cliffs. Ideal for surfing, sunbathing, and spotting celebrities.

Venice Beach – California, USA ■■

A vibrant and eclectic beachfront famous for its boardwalk, street performers, skate park, and artistic culture. Perfect for socializing and soaking up the SoCal vibe.

Seven Mile Beach – Grand Cayman ■■

A postcard-perfect Caribbean beach known for soft white sand and crystal waters. Great for snorkeling, diving, and luxurious beachfront resorts.

Eagle Beach – Aruba ■■

Aruba's widest beach featuring soft white sand and famous Divi Divi trees. Calm waters make it great for swimming and relaxation.

Grace Bay Beach – Turks & Caicos ■■

Ranked among the world's top beaches, it offers powdery sand, turquoise waters, and vibrant coral reefs ideal for snorkeling and water sports.

Labadi Beach – Ghana ■■

Accra's most popular beach blending African rhythm, local cuisine, and weekend festivals. A lively spot with dancing, horseback rides, and cultural events.

Playa Paraiso – Tulum, Mexico ■■

Translating to 'Paradise Beach', this Mexican gem features powdery white sands, swaying palms, and turquoise Caribbean waters near ancient Mayan ruins.

Playa Blanca – Colombia ■■

Located on Isla Barú, Playa Blanca boasts white sands, clear Caribbean waters, and local beach shacks serving fresh seafood. Perfect for relaxation and swimming.

■ Summary

Whether it's the dramatic cliffs of Navagio Beach, the lively boardwalks of Venice, or the calm Caribbean waters of Grace Bay, the West Zone embodies the spirit of beauty, energy, and discovery.